EVEN CURES ULCERS

Remarkable Results from Skin Remedy that Costs Almost Nothing.

No matter how bad a sore or ulcer afflicts you, it is said that Hokara the pure skin food, will cure it. In fact if it doesn't cure, the purchase will be refunded.

D. F. Davis, the local agent for Hokara, who has sold hundreds of packages the last few weeks, says he has yet to find any form of wound or disease affecting the skin that Hokara does not heal, and its relief is so instantaneous that those who try it are simply delighted with it.

Pimples, eczema, blackheads, acne, barber's itch, and all skin troubles are quickly cured by applying this simple skin food and tissue builder. It contains no grease or acids, and is cleanly to use. A liberal jar costs only 25 cents and even this is returned if Hokara fails to cure.

Kills Her Foe of 20 Years.

"The most mercurial enemy I had for 20 years," declares Mrs. James Duncan of Haynesville, Me., "was dyspepsia. I suffered intensely after eating or drinking and could scarcely sleep. After many remedies had failed and several doctors gave me up, I tried Electric Bitters, which cured me completely. Now I can eat anything. I am 70 years old and am overjoyed to get my health and strength back again." For indigestion, loss of appetite, kidney trouble, lame back, female complaints, its unequalled. Only 50c at Red Cross Pharmacy.

CORINTH.

Only a very few deer reported so far. Ernest Blake, Wallace Crolley and Joe Wiggins each shot a deer.

George Lord died last Tuesday, and his body was taken to Boston on the one o'clock train for interment.

Hollis Hoyt returned to Burlington last Tuesday after spending a few days with his father, John Hoyt, and while at home Hollis was one of the lucky ones, shooting a deer Monday morning.

D. J. McMillan and D. C. Thwing of Barre City were hunting deer and stopping at Charles Eastman's last week. D. J. McMillan was the lucky one, returning to Barre with a nice doe weighing 160 pounds.

LIKE OLD FRIENDS

The Longer You Know Them the Better You Like Them.

Doan's Kidney Pills never fail you. Barre people know this. Read this Barre case. Read how Doan's stood the test for many years.

It's local testimony and can be investigated:

Mrs. William Stephens, 78 Maple avenue, Barre, Vt., says: "In 1905 Mr. Stephens gave a testimonial in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills to the effect that his mother had used them and found great relief from backache and kidney trouble. I know that she still thinks well of the remedy and takes it whenever her kidneys trouble her. About two years ago Mr. Stephens also began to be bothered by his back and kidneys. Hard work undoubtedly being the cause of the trouble. He used Doan's Kidney Pills and found them very effective. The completely relieved the pain and lameness in his back and corrected the irregular passages of the kidney secretions. He procured this excellent remedy at E. A. Brown's drug store."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

CABOT.

Mrs. Ina Rogers is visiting friends in Calais.

John Noyce had a slight shock last Saturday.

The lost umbrella returned with thanks from the owner.

Alden Owen attended the teachers' convention at Burlington and was the guest of Prof. Gilmore.

Mrs. Mary E. Erwin of North Haverhill, N. H., is visiting her cousin, Francis Knapp, a few weeks.

Miss Ruth Woods of Walden has been obliged to give up attending the high school on account of illness.

Mrs. Myrtle Lane of Woodbury was in town Thursday and attended the funeral of her uncle, R. B. Bruce.

Alvin Clark and two daughters of Barre were in town last Thursday to attend the funeral of R. B. Bruce.

Miss Madeline Walbridge was a guest of Misses Mary and Martha Austin over Sunday at their home in East Cabot.

Miss Gladys Blake was detained from teaching school in the Walbridge district two days last week by illness with tonsillitis.

Frank Blanchard, a former resident of this town, died at the Odd Fellows home in Ludlow last week. Further particulars later.

Friday at 2:30 p. m. there will be a prayer meeting in the Methodist church for special benefit to those who cannot come out evenings.

Rev. F. E. Currier was absent from town last Sunday. His place in the pulpit was supplied by Prof. Gilmore, the high school principal.

Herman Howland and George Laird think it is "better late than never" even in deer hunting season, so they each shot a buck Saturday afternoon.

Miss Christine Currier was entertained at the home of Mrs. N. L. Divillo at Rockingham last week, going from there to the north part of the state to visit friends.

The usual weekly prayer meeting will be held Wednesday evening at the Congregational church at 7:30. At the close the young people are requested to talk about forming a Christian Endeavor society.

Several neighboring friends gave Tyler Dow a farewell reception last Monday evening, leaving their good wishes for his journey to Florida and a profitable winter with safe return home next spring. Refreshments of oysters, cake and fruit were served.

News was received here the past week of the sad condition of Mrs. Fred Corliss at the home of her son, Nathan, in Fairlee, saying she had another shock which rendered her speechless. For several years she had suffered from previous shocks, being nearly helpless. She will be remembered as a former resident of this town and her friends extend their sympathy to her and her companion.

MONTPELIER

The Vermont Mutual Fire Insurance company will install two steel ceilings, in the secretary's and treasurer's offices.

H. D. Cushman, returned from Curtis pond yesterday morning with a large buck, weighing 225 pounds, which he shot Saturday.

The art exhibit from the Norwich art school of Norwich, Conn., has arrived at the seminary and will be put on exhibition for the public for the rest of the week.

The police got a call from Bonazzi & Bonazzi yesterday afternoon saying that a policeman had gone amuck. They later telephoned that no arrests would be made but not until an officer had come upon the scene.

The funeral of Mrs. D. G. Kemp was held from her former residence on Main street at once o'clock yesterday, with Rev. Stanley S. Blomfield officiating. Interment was in Elmwood cemetery at Northfield, where her husband was buried.

Game Warden H. O. Kent thinks that somewhere in the neighborhood of 1900 deer have been shot in Washington county alone, from the reports that have come in so far. Duxbury seemed to be the best hunting ground, as there were 118 deer killed in that town alone.

The high school foot ball team went to Burlington this morning and will play the Burlington high school this afternoon. The local boys think they will be more evenly matched with the Burlington team than they were with the seminary team.

Paul Tavernier, a lumber employed in C. P. Oll's shed, fell from a polishing machine yesterday morning and sustained several painful injuries. The machine fell with him, but he got out of the way of that by jumping forward. His right heel was injured, the bones being fractured, and the other foot was considerably bruised.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

"Eight Bells" at The Barre Opera House This Evening.

The Brothers Byrne appear at the opera house tonight with their big company in "Eight Bells." The Byrnes are expert acrobats and although a capable company fills in the minor parts the balance of the fun making falls upon the quartette who are a host in themselves. There are a number of comical situations throughout the piece, notably the trick coach and the steamship interior which rolls most naturally during the entire act. In the last act, the John Byrne troupe of acrobats appear as stunts, and perform some excellent acts in tumbling, as well as posing in picturesque groups. The humorously funny situations throughout the whole performance create the most laughable effects imaginable.

"The Traveling Salesman."

"The Traveling Salesman" by James Forbes, author of "The Chorus Lady" will be seen for the first time in this city at the opera house next Thursday night. This comedy of middle west life has proved to be the big substantial hit of the present theatrical season and goes "like greased lightning" and provokes an endless chain of laughs, and not since the palmy days of Charles Hoyt has any comedy enjoyed such a protracted vogue as this James Forbes offering. This jovial comedy tells a story that sustains lively interest to the final curtain and presents a dozen or more types of real human nature that are expertly and humorously drawn. The play is manifestly the fruit of sharp yet tolerant observation of life and is fraught with extremely comical reflections that have their source in a sunny and philosophical mind and it is provided by good sense, good morals and good fun. Its spirit is genuinely American, it is accurate and alive, and does not descend to caricature. James Forbes has scored an important success with his new comedy and the eager response with which the public has greeted it everywhere indicates that it is bound to run merrily along and repeat its late New York, Boston and Chicago success.

This confession would seem to indicate an unparadise or criminal vanity on the part of Mrs. Vaynin, but is shown that her desire for dress is created only by her desire to continue attractive to her husband. Inferentially, the husband is partly guilty in not having given his wife such means.

Two eminent reviewers said two significant things of "The Thief"—one that as many husbands as possible should be compelled to see the play, and the other that the effect of a sermon was reached without preaching, the audience propounding its own homily from a text furnished by the author.

C. O. Averill will start his private dancing lessons Tuesday, Oct. 26, in the Averill block.

Run Down?

Ask your doctor all about Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Entirely free from alcohol. A strong tonic and alterative.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a tonic. It does not stimulate. It does not make you feel better one day, then as bad as ever the next. There is not a drop of alcohol in it. You have the steady, even gain that comes from a strong tonic. Ask your doctor all about this.

TOO HIGH!

Some people have the idea that the cost of Electric Light is too high—that it is expensive.

Look at it this way—If it is safer, cooler, cleaner and more cheerful and convenient than any other illuminant, isn't it worth more to you?

We can easily show you that our rates are fair as compared with other cities and lower than in many. And our service is constant and sure. The lights always burn.

"The Thief" Next Saturday.

Teaching a great lesson without being preachy, telling a tremendous story in the simplest of ways; that is "The Thief" which is to be seen at the opera house next Saturday evening, November 6th. So many people saw "The Thief" during its ten months' run at the Lyceum theatre, New York, that its fame has spread rapidly and logically. It has helped to put Henri Bernstein to the very front of French dramatists and has also given him the best of ratings in America, England, Russia, Spain, Italy and Sweden, all of which countries have had translations of the play and all of which have accepted it badly. What Bernstein figured out for his set of characters in France might happen anywhere in civilization; hence a play of really "universal interest."

"The Thief" has been so built that its story is not ended until the final curtain. There is none of the anti-climax of the drama which devotes a last act of straightening out a plot and marrying people off. Moreover, just so long as the story takes in telling, just so long is the time of the play supposed to be—all being concluded in an evening.

The author, like all great story-tellers, saves his big charge for the final shot when Mme. Vaynin confesses to her husband that she has committed the mysterious thefts with which the son of their host has been taxed. With the explanation that she has spent the money on dress, the play takes on the characteristics of a household study.

A Poor Weak Woman

As she is termed, will endure bravely and patiently agonies which a strong man would give way under. The fact is women are more patient than they ought to be under such troubles.

Every woman ought to know that she may obtain the most experienced medical advice free of charge and in absolute confidence and privacy by writing to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce has been chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., for many years and has had a wider practical experience in the treatment of women's diseases than any other physician in this country. His medicines are world-famous for their astonishing efficacy.

The most perfect remedy ever devised for weak and delicate women is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

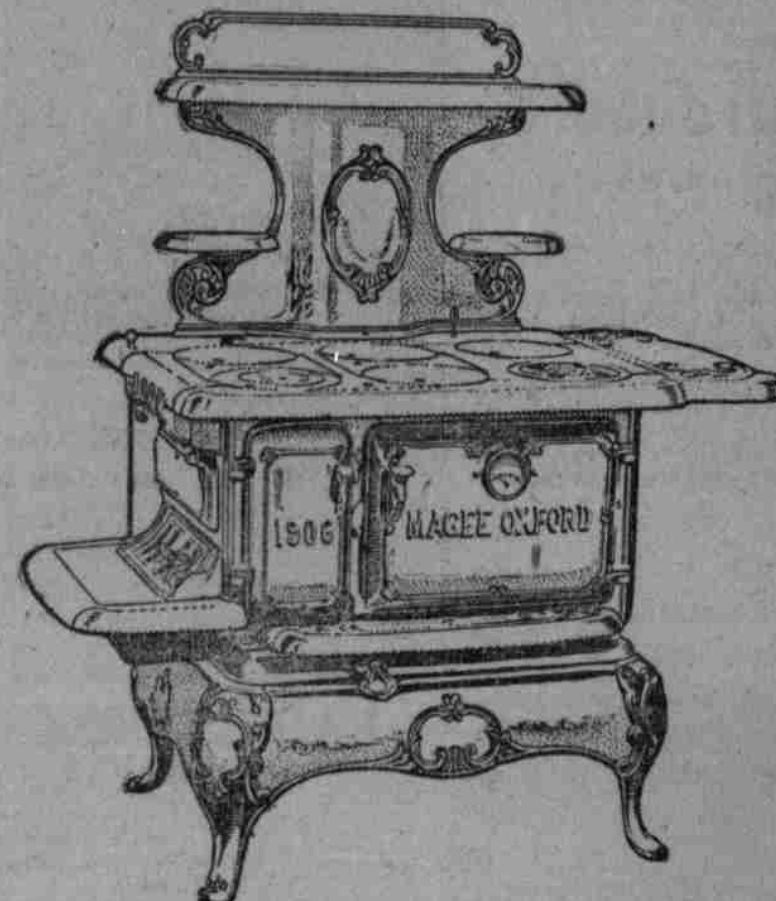

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG.

SICK WOMEN WELL.

The many and varied symptoms of woman's peculiar ailments are fully set forth in Plain English in the People's Medical Adviser (1008 pages), a newly revised and up-to-date Edition of which, cloth-bound, will be mailed free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only. Friction Bearings or Ball Bearings—Which?

L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter with Gardner Ball Bearing Joint

The ordinary friction bearing will wear loose. Each revolution or vibration grinds out a small portion of the bearing surface. After a while it wobbles—adjustment permanently ruined.

The New Model

L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter

is fitted with Ball Bearings throughout. Every vital wearing part—type-bar joints, carriage, and type-bar segment—has the kind of bearings that thousands of operations cause to run even smoother than at first.
